This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

QUOI qu'il paroiſſe difficile de parler en faveur d'un abrégé, cependant cet Epitome ne manque pas de raiſons pour le rendre recommandable; car, excepté les phraſes qui ne ſervent qu'à illuſtrer le ſens des mots, il a tous les avantages que le Public a bien voulu remarquer dans le Dictionnaire in Quarto du même auteur: ſur-tout les différentes acceptations des termes expliquées ſéparément, et cette dernière Edition eſt enrichie de pluſieurs centaines de mots qui ne ſe trouvent réellement dans aucun autre Dictionnaire François et Anglois. On y a conſervé les accens ſur les mots Anglois pour en faciliter la prononciation aux étrangers, en faveur desquels on a auſſi marqué les irrégularités des verbes Anglois, en y ajoutant le prétérit et le participe paſſif lorſqu'ils ne ſe forment pas régulièrement de l'infinitif.

Mais comme c'eſt particulièrement pour faciliter l'étude de la langue Françoiſe que nous avons le plus travaillé, on aura dans cette nouvelle Edition un ſecours qui ne ſe trouve dans aucun autre Dictionnaire dans les deux langues; c'eſt que, outre que les verbes irréguliers y ſont conjugués dans l'ordre alphabétique, on a joint à tous les infinitifs (excepté ceux de la première conjugaiſon) le gérondif et le participe paſſif d'où ſe forment tous les tems ſimples des verbes, et on a placé au commencement de la partie Françoiſe une table qui expoſe d'un coup d'œil cette formation. C'eſt auſſi pour réduire le nombre des irréguliers, que l'on n'a pas voulu ſe limiter aux quatre conjugaiſons régulières admiſes par le Sieur Boyer; on a jugé plus à propos de ſe conformer aux meilleurs grammairiens modernes, et en donner dix, toutes régulières, que d'augmenter les difficultés par des ſubdiviſions et anomalies dans chacune de ces conjugaiſons, qui ne ſervent qu'à embarraſſer.

Dans la partie Françoiſe, tous les verbes ſont ſuivis d'un chiffre depuis 1. juſqu'à 10. qui en dénote la conjugaiſon et répond à la table donnée: ainſi chanter, v. a. 1. bâtir, v. a. 2. partir, v. n. 3. inſtruire, v. a. 9. &c. ſont entendre que chanter eſt un verbe actif de la première conjugaiſon; bâtir, verbe

THOUGH it may ſeem a difficult Matter to ſpeak in Behalf of an Abridgment, yet this Epiteme does not want Reaſons to recommend itſelf; for, excepting thoſe Phraſes which ſerve only to elucidate the Senſe of the Words, it has all the Advantages which the Public have been pleaſed to obſerve in the ROYAL Quarto DICTIONARY of the ſame Author; chiefly the different Acceptations of Terms diſtinguiſhed and explained, with ſeveral hundred Words in this laſt Edition, which are really not to be found in any other FRENCH and ENGLISH Dictionary. We have retained the Accents which are added to the Engliſh Words, in order to facilitate the Pronunciation of them to Foreigners, for whoſe Sake we have likewiſe pointed out the Irregularities of the Engliſh Verbs, by adding to the Infinitive, the Preterite and the Participle when theſe are not formed regularly.

But, as our greateſt Endeavours have been to facilitate the Study of the French Tongue, this Edition will afford to the young Students an Help not to be had in any other FRENCH and ENGLISH Dictionary; for, beſides that all the irregular Verbs are conjugated in the alphabetic Order, we have added to all the regular (thoſe of the firſt Conjugation excepted) the Gerund and Participle from whence all the ſimple Tenſes are formed, and there is prefixed at the Beginning of the French Part, a Table which ſhows at one View, how the Tenſes are formed from one another. It is likewiſe with a View of reducing the Number of Irregulars, that, without confining ourſelves to the four regular Conjugations admitted by BOYER, we have thought it more proper to conform to the beſt modern Grammarians, and to give ten Conjugations, all of them very regular, than to add Difficulties upon Difficulties, by puzzling Anomalies and Subdiviſions in each Conjugation.

In the French Part, every Verb is followed by a Figure from 1. to 10. which denotes its Conjugation, anſwerable to the given Table thus, by chanter, v. a. 1. bâtir, v. a. 2. partir, v. n. 3. inſtruire, v. a. 9, &c. one is to underſtand that chanter is an active Verb of the firſt Conjugation; bâtir, an active Verb of verbe actif de la seconde; partir, verbe neutre de la troisième; instruire, verbe actif de la neuvième, &c.

De l'Infinitif se forme toujours le Futur; ce qui se fait dans les trois premières conjugaisons, en y ajoutant ai; comme aimer, aimerai; unir, unirai; sortir, sortirai. Dans la quatrième, en changeant enir en iendrai; venir, je viendrai. Dans la cinquième, en changeant evoir en evrai: recevoir, je recevrai. Dans la sixième aire en erai; faire je ferai. Et dans les quatre dernières, en changeant l'e final en ai: craindre, je craindrai; connoître, je connoîtrai; instruire, j'instruirai; rendre, je rendrai. Le conditionnel est invariablement formé du futur en changeant la terminaison ai en ois. J'aimerai, j'aimerois; je recevrai, je recevrois; j'instruirai, j'instruirois; je rendrai, je rendrois, &c.

La Terminaison du Gérondif est toujours en ant, qui changée en ons donne la première personne du pluriel du présent de l'indicatif, d'où se forme toujours l'imparfait, en changeant cette terminaison en ois. Ainsi, d'unissant, nous unissons, j'unissois; de craignant, nous craignons, je craignois, &c. règle générale pour tous les verbes réguliers et irréguliers.

Du Gérondif se forme encore le présent du subjonctif en changeant ant en e muet. Comme d'agissant, que j'agisse; de connoissant que je connoisse, &c. excepté les verbes de la quatrième conjugaison, où enant est changé en ienne; venant, que je vienne. Ceux de la cinquième, qui changent evant en oive, comme devant, que je doive; et ceux de la sixième, qui changent esant en asse; fesant, que je fasse, &c.

On peut dire encore que c'est du même gérondif que se forment les prétérits de l'indicatif et du subjonctif, dans les verbes de la septième et de la neuvième conjugaison, en changeant ant en is pour le prétérit de l'indicatif, et en isse pour celui du subjonctif. Comme de craignant, je craignis, que je craignisse: d'instruisant, j'instruisis, que j'instruisisse, &c.

Le Prétérit dans les autres conjugaisons se forme du Participe; dans la première en changeant é final en ai: parlé, je parlai; dans la seconde et troisième, où le Participe se termine en i, et dans la cinquième et la huitième où il se termine en u, on y ajoute une s, comme de bâti, senti, on fait je bâtis, the second; partir, a neuter Verb of the third; instruire, an active Verb of the ninth, &c.

The Future, in all Conjugations, is formed from the Infinitive: In the three First, by adding ai to it, as from aimer, j'aimerai; unir, j'unirai; sortir, je sortirai. In the fourth, by changing enir into iendrai; venir, je viendrai. In the fifth, by changing evoir into evrai, recevoir, je recevrai. In the sixth, aire into erai, faire, je ferai. And in the four last Conjugations, the final e of the Infinitive is changed into ai; as from craindre, je craindrai; connoître, je connoîtrai; instruire, j'instruirai; rendre, je rendrai. The Conditional is invariably formed from the future, by changing the Termination ai into ois; as j'aimerai, j'aimerois; je recevrai, je recevrois; j'instruirai, j'instruirois; je rendrai, je rendrois, &c.

The Gerund always ends in ant, which being changed into ons, gives the first Person plural of the Present of the Indicative, and being changed into ois, always gives the Imperfect. Thus, from unissant, nous unissons, j'unissois; from craignant, nous craignons, je craignois; &c. an invariable Rule for all Verbs regular and irregular.

By changing the Termination of the Gerund into e mute, we have the Present of the Subjunctive, as, from agissant is formed que j'agisse; from connoissant, que je connoisse, &c. except the Verbs of the fourth Conjugation, which change enant of the Gerund into ienne, venant, que je vienne. Those of the fifth, which change evant into oive, devant, que je doive; and those of the sixth, wherein esant is changed into asse, fesant, que je fasse.

Both the Preterites in the Verbs of the seventh and ninth Conjugations, may even be properly deduced from the same Gerund, by changing its Termination ant into is. for the Preterite of the Indicative, and into isse for that of the Subjunctive; thus from craignant, je craignis, que je craignisse, and from instruisant, j'instruisis, que j'instruisisse, &c.

The Preterite in the other Conjugations is formed from the Participle: In the first by changing the final e into ai; thus from parlé, je parlai. In the second and third, where the Participle ends in i, and in the fifth and eighth where it terminates in u, the Preterite is formed by the Addition of an s. Thus from bâti, senti, reçu, bâtis, je sentis. De reçu et connu, je reçus, je connus. Dans la quatrième, enu se change en ins, revenu, je revins. Dans la sixième ait se change en is, fait, je fis. et dans la dixième, l'u final est changé en is, rendu, je rendis. Le Prétérit du subjonctif est invariablement formé du prétérit de l'indicatif ; dans la première, en ajoutant sse à la seconde personne du singulier ; comme tu parlas, tu chantas, que je parlasse, que je chantasse. Et dans toutes les autres en ajoutant sse à la première personne, je partis, que je partisse, je reçus, que je reçusse, &c.

Le Gérondif étant d'un si grand usage, nous nous flattons que l'étudiant nous saura gré de l'avoir tiré de l'oubli où il étoit, et de lui avoir donné des règles faciles et sûres pour en former les tems des verbes sans être obligé d'avoir recours à sa grammaire ou même à sa table. L'écolier voyant de suite, et s'accoutumant à lire de même, agir, agissant, agi ; paroître, paroissant, paru ; battre, battant, battu ; bâtir, bâtissant, bâti ; ne sera plus si porté à dire, nous bâtons, je bâtois, pour bâtissons, bâtissois ; nous parons, je parois, au lieu de paroissons, paroissois ; satisfons pour satisfesons, &c. et mille autres mots semblables qui ne sont que trop communs dans les écoles, et parmi les commençans.

Si d'après cet exposé on se plaint de ne point voir les gérondifs et les participes des verbes de la première conjugaison, on répondra que c'est parce que ces verbes n'ont aucun augment syllabique, et que l'écolier ne peut y faire aucune méprise, le gérondif étant toujours formé en changeant la terminaison er de l'infinitif en ant ; parler, parlant ; et le participe en la changeant en é ; parler, parlé, &c. nous dirons encore que cela n'est qu'un abrégé ; que les verbes de la première conjugaison sont très-nombreux, et qu'enfin nous nous sommes persuadés qu'il faudroit de donner cette règle générale.

L'ordre dans lequel on a placé les tems dans les verbes irréguliers est le même que dans la Table donnée : l'infinitif, le gérondif, le participe, le présent, l'imparfait, le prétérit, reçu, connu, is formed, je bâtis, je sentis, je reçus, je connus, &c. In the fourth Conjugation the Preterite is formed by changing enu into ins ; thus from revenu, je revins. In the sixth, ait of the Participle is changed into is ; as from fait, je fis ; and in the tenth, by changing the u final into is. Thus from rendu, répondu, is formed je rendis, je répondis, &c. The Preterite of the Subjunctive is invariably formed from the Preterite of the Indicative in the first Conjugation by adding se to the second Person singular of the Preterite. In all the others by adding the same Syllable se to the first Person. Thus, from tu parlas, tu chantas, is formed, que je parlasse, que je chantasse ; from je partis, que je partisse, from je reçus, que je reçusse, &c.

The great Use of the Gerund thus demonstrated, we flatter ourselves that the Student who is to derive so much Advantage from it, will be very well pleased at our having drawn it from the Oblivion in which it was in some Measure buried, and at our having given him sure and easy Rules to make Use of it in the Formation of his Tenses, without being obliged to have recourse even to his Table, much less to his Grammar. Our young Learners, by seeing and using themselves to read together, agir, agissant, agi ; paroître, paroissant, paru ; battre, battant, battu ; bâtir, bâtissant, bâti ; will be no longer so apt to say, nous bâtons, je bâtois, instead of bâtissons, bâtissois ; nous parons, je parois, instead of paroissons, paroissois ; satisfons, for satisfesons, &c. and a thousand of the like Improprieties, too common in Schools, and among Beginners.

If any one should now avail himself of what we have said of the Use of the Gerund, in order to find Fault with us for not having joined it, together with the Participle, to the Verbs of the first Conjugation, let him be pleased to observe, that these Verbs having the same Number of Syllables both in the Gerund and Participle, they being regularly formed from the Infinitive, the former by changing the final er into ant, and the latter by changing it into é, as parler, parlant, parlé ; it is hardly possible for the Student to make any Mistake ; we shall excuse ourselves likewise upon the Number of those Verbs, too great to be needlessly inserted in an Abridgment, being persuaded besides that this general Rule will be thought sufficient.

The Order of the Tenses in the Conjugation of the irregular Verbs is the same as in the Table, to wit, the Infinitive, the Gerund, the Participle, the Present, the Imperfect, the Preterite, the Future, prétérit, le futur, le conditionnel, et le préſent et le prétérit du ſubjonctif.

Digitized by Google

Toute l'irrégularité des verbes Anglois n'étant que dans quelques prétérits et participes, on les a joints à l'infinitif : ainſi on trouvera to bear, v. a. pret. bore, part. borne. To give, v. a. pret. gave, part. given. To put, pret. & part. put. Par-tout où il n'eſt pas marqué autrement, le verbe eſt régulier (ou de la forme de ſon primitif, ſi c'eſt un verbe compoſé) et le prétérit et le participe terminés en ed, ſe forment régulièrement de l'infinitif, ſoit en y ajoutant d ſi le verbe finit par une voyelle, comme to love, loved; ou ajoutant ed s'il ſe termine par une conſonne, comme, to anſwer, anſwered; ou enfin en doublant la dernière conſonne quand elle eſt précédée d'une ſimple voyelle; comme, to rub, rubbed; to beg, begged; to pin, pinned, &c.

Afin de perfectionner, autant qu'on a pu, cet Abrégé, on a encore ajouté le genre aux mots François dans la partie Angloiſe, lorſqu'il n'eſt pas determiné par l'article le ou la; un ou une; ainſi on trouvera dans cette Edition ſhelving, ſ. pente, f. talus, m. the ſide of a hill, le penchant, ou la pente d'une colline; ſkill, ſ. ſcience, f. ſavoir, m. adreſſe, habileté, expérience, capacité, f. par-tout où, comme dans ce dernier exemple, il y a pluſieurs mots de ſuite ſans aucune diſtinction, c'eſt qu'ils ſont tous de même genre que le dernier, auquel eſt toujours jointe la lettre caractériſtique m. ou f.

Des augmentations auſſi conſidérables dans un Abrégé qui a déjà paſſé par tant d'éditions, et dont le mérite eſt ſi évidemment prouvé par la vente rapide de la dernière, malgré la Publication de pluſieurs autres ouvrages de même genre, montrent tout à la fois le déſintéreſſement des libraires aſſociés, et le deſir qu'ils ont de continuer à ne rien épargner pour perfectionner de plus en plus l'ouvrage qu'ils donnent au Public, et pour le lui rendre plus utile et plus agréable.

Future, the Conditional, and the Preſent and Preterite of the Subjunctive.

The whole Irregularity of the Engliſh Verbs being only in ſome Preterites and Participles, theſe have been ſubjoined to their Infinitives. Thus we ſhall find to bear, v. a. pret. bore, part. borne To give, v. a. pret. gave, part. given. To put, pret. and part. put. Wherever they are not taken Notice of, the Preterite and Participle end in ed (except in compound Verbs, which follow the ſame Variations as their Primitives) and are regularly formed from the Infinitive, either by adding d to it, when it ends by a Vowel, as to love, loved; or ed when it ends by a Conſonant, as to anſwer, anſwered or by doubling the laſt Conſonant when it is preceded by a ſingle Vowel; as to rub, rubbed; to beg, begged; to pin, pinned, &c.

In order to bring this Abridgment as near as poſſible to its Perfection, we have added, in this Edition, the Genders to the French Words in the Engliſh Part, wherever it is not determined by the Article le or la; un or une. Thus ſhelving, ſ. pente, f. talus, m. the Side of a Hill, la pente ou le penchant d'une colline; ſkill, ſ. ſcience, f. ſavoir, m. addreſſe, habileté, expérience, çapacité, f. Whenever, as in this laſt Example, there are ſeveral Words together without any Diſtinction, they are all of the ſame Gender with the laſt of them, to which is ever added the characteriſtical Letter m. or f.

Such conſiderable Improvements and Additions to an Abridgment which has already gone thro' ſo many Editions, the Merit of which is ſo evidently aſcertained by the quick Sale of the laſt Edition, in Spite of ſeveral other Publications of the ſame Kind, ſhow at once the Diſintereſtedneſs of the Proprietors, and the Deſire they have of ſparing no Expence to improve and render ſtill more acceptable and uſeful, the Performance which they offer to the Public.

De l'Infinitif se forme toujours le Futur; ce qui se fait dans les trois premières conjugaisons, en y ajoutant ai; comme aimer, aimerai; unir, unirai; sortir, sortirai. Dans la quatrième, en changeant enir en iendrai; venir, je viendrai. Dans la cinquième, en changeant evoir en evrai: recevoir, je recevrai. Dans la sixième aire en erai; faire je ferai. Et dans les quatre dernières, en changeant l'e final en ai: craindre, je craindrai; connoître, je connoîtrai; instruire, j'instruirai; rendre, je rendrai. Le conditionnel est invariablement formé du futur en changeant la terminaison ai en ois. J'aimerai, j'aimerois; je recevrai, je recevrois; j'instruirai, j'instruirois; je rendrai, je rendrois, &c.

La Terminaison du Gérondif est toujours en ant, qui changée en ons donne la première personne du pluriel du présent de l'indicatif, d'où se forme toujours l'imparfait, en changeant cette terminaison en ois. Ainsi, d'uniſſant, nous uniſſons, j'uniſſois; de craignant, nous craignons, je craignois, &c. règle générale pour tous les verbes réguliers et irréguliers.

Du Gérondif se forme encore le présent du subjonctif en changeant ant en e muet. Comme d'agiſſant, que j'agiſſe; de connoiſſant que je connoiſſe, &c. excepté les verbes de la quatrième conjugaison, où enant est changé en ienne; venant, que je vienne. Ceux de la cinquième, qui changent evant en oive, comme devant, que je doive; et ceux de la sixième, qui changent esant en asse; fesant, que je fasse, &c.

On peut dire encore que c'est du même gérondif que se forment les prétérits de l'indicatif et du subjonctif, dans les verbes de la septième et de la neuvième conjugaison, en changeant ant en is pour le prétérit de l'indicatif, et en isse pour celui du subjonctif. Comme de craignant, je craignis, que je craignisse: d'instruisant, j'instruisis, que j'instruisisse, &c.

Le Prétérit dans les autres conjugaisons se forme du Participe; dans la première en changeant é final en ai: parlé, je parlai; dans la seconde et troisième, où le Participe se termine en i, et dans la cinquième et la huitième où il se termine en u, on y ajoute une s, comme de bâti, senti, on fait je bâtis, the second; partir, a neuter Verb of the third; instruire, an active Verb of the ninth, &c.

The Future, in all Conjugations, is formed from the Infinitive: In the three First, by adding ai to it, as from aimer, j'aimerai; unir, j'unirai; sortir, je sortirai. In the fourth, by changing enir into iendrai; venir, je viendrai. In the fifth, by changing evoir into evrai, recevoir, je recevrai. In the sixth, aire into erai, faire, je ferai. And in the four last Conjugations, the final e of the Infinitive is changed into ai; as from craindre, je craindrai; connoître, je connoîtrai; instruire, j'instruirai; rendre, je rendrai. The Conditional is invariably formed from the future, by changing the Termination ai into ois; as j'aimerai, j'aimerois; je recevrai, je recevrois; j'instruirai, j'instruirois; je rendrai, je rendrois, &c.

The Gerund always ends in ant, which being changed into ons, gives the first Person plural of the Present of the Indicative, and being changed into ois, always gives the Imperfect. Thus, from uniſſant, nous uniſſons, j'uniſſois; from craignant, nous craignons, je craignois; &c. an invariable Rule for all Verbs regular and irregular.

By changing the Termination of the Gerund into e mute, we have the Present of the Subjunctive, as, from agiſſant is formed que j'agiſſe; from connoiſſant, que je connoiſſe, &c. except the Verbs of the fourth Conjugation, which change enant of the Gerund into ienne, venant, que je vienne. Those of the fifth, which change evant into oive, devant, que je doive; and those of the sixth, wherein esant is changed into asse, fesant, que je fasse.

Both the Preterites in the Verbs of the seventh and ninth Conjugations, may even be properly deduced from the same Gerund, by changing its Termination ant into is, for the Preterite of the Indicative, and into isse for that of the Subjunctive; thus from craignant, je craignis, que je craignisse, and from instruisant, j'instruisis, que j'instruisisse, &c.

The Preterite in the other Conjugations is formed from the Participle: In the first by changing the final e into ai; thus from parlé, je parlai. In the second and third, where the Participle ends in i, and in the fifth and eighth where it terminates in u, the Preterite is formed by the Addition of an s. Thus from bâti, senti, reçu,

Digitized by Google

bâtis je sentis. De reçu et connu, je reçus, je connus. Dans la quatrième, enu se change en ins, revenu, je revins. Dans la sixième ait se change en is, fait, je fis, et dans la dixième, l'u final est changé en is, rendu, je rendis. Le Prétérit du subjonctif est invariablement formé du prétérit de l'indicatif; dans la première, en ajoutant se a la seconde personne du singulier; comme tu parlas, tu chantas, que je parlasse, que je chantasse. Et dans toutes les autres en ajoutant se à la première personne, je partis, que je partisse, je reçus, que je reçusse, &c.

Le Gérondif étant d'un si grand usage, nous nous flattons que l'étudiant nous saura gré de l'avoir tiré de l'oubli où il étoit, et de lui avoir donné des règles faciles et sûres pour en former les tems des verbes sans être obligé d'avoir recours à sa grammaire ou même à sa table. L'écolier voyant de suite, et s'accoutumant à lire de même, agir, agissant, agi; paroître, paroissant, paru; battre, battant, battu; bâtir, bâtissant, bâti; ne sera plus si porté à dire, nous bâtons, je bâtois, pour bâtissons, bâtissois; nous parons, je parois, au lieu de paroissons, paroissois; satisfons pour satisfesons, &c. et mille autres mots semblables qui ne sont que trop communs dans les écoles, et parmi les commençans.

Si d'après cet exposé on se plaint de ne point voir les gérondifs et les participes des verbes de la première conjugaison, on répondra que c'est parce que ces verbes n'ont aucun augment syllabique, et que l'écolier ne peut y faire aucune méprise, le gérondif étant toujours formé en changeant la terminaison er de l'infinitif en ant; parler, parlant: et le participe en la changeant en é; parler, parlé, &c. nous dirons encore que ceci n'est qu'un abrégé; que les verbes de la première conjugaison sont très-nombreux, et qu'enfin nous nous sommes persuadés qu'il suffiroit de donner cette règle générale.

L'ordre dans lequel on a placé les tems dans les verbes irréguliers est le même que dans la Table donnée: l'infinitif, le gérondif, le participe, le présent, l'imparfait, le prétérit, reçu, connu, is formed, je bâtis, je sentis, je reçus, je connus, &c. In the fourth Conjugation the Preterite is formed by changing enu into ins; thus from revenu, je revins. In the sixth, ait of the Participle is changed into is; as from fait, je fis; and in the tenth, by changing the u final into is. Thus from rendu, répondu, is formed je rendis, je répondis, &c. The Preterite of the Subjunctive is invariably formed from the Preterite of the Indicative in the first Conjugation by adding se to the second Person singular of the Preterite. In all the others by adding the same Syllable se to the first Person. Thus, from tu parlas, tu chantas, is formed, que je parlasse, que je chantasse; from je partis, que je partisse, from je reçus, que je reçusse, &c.

The great Use of the Gerund thus demonstrated, we flatter ourselves that the Student who is to derive so much Advantage from it, will be very well pleased at our having drawn it from the Oblivion in which it was in some Measure buried, and at our having given him sure and easy Rules to make Use of it in the Formation of his Tenses, without being obliged to have recourse even to his Table, much less to his Grammar. Our young Learners, by seeing and using themselves to read together, agir, agissant, agi; paroître, paroissant, paru; battre, battant, battu; bâtir, bâtissant, bâti; will be no longer so apt to say, nous bâtons, je bâtois, instead of bâtissons, bâtissois; nous parons, je parois, instead of paroissons, paroissois; satisfons, for satisfesons, &c. and a thousand of the like Improprieties, too common in Schools, and among Beginners.

If any one should now avail himself of what we have said of the Use of the Gerund, in order to find Fault with us for not having joined it, together with the Participle, to the Verbs of the first Conjugation, let him be pleased to observe, that these Verbs having the same Number of Syllables both in the Gerund and Participle, they being regularly formed from the Infinitive, the former by changing the final er into ant, and the latter by changing it into é, as parler, parlant, parlé; it is hardly possible for the Student to make any Mistake; we shall excuse ourselves likewise upon the Number of those Verbs, too great to be needlessly inserted in an Abridgment, being persuaded besides that this general Rule will be thought sufficient.

The Order of the Tenses in the Conjugation of the irregular Verbs is the same as in the Table, to wit, the Infinitive, the Gerund, the Participle, the Present, the Imperfect, the Preterite, the Future, prétérit, le futur, le conditionnel, et le présent et le prétérit du subjonctif.

Toute l'irrégularité des verbes Anglois n'étant que dans quelques prétérits et participes, on les a joints à l'infinitif : ainsi on trouvera to bear, v. a. pret. bore, part. borne. To give, v. a. pret. gave, part. given. To put, pret. & part. put. Par-tout où il n'eſt pas marqué autrement, le verbe eſt régulier (ou de la forme de ſon primitif, ſi c'eſt un verbe compoſé) et le prétérit et le participe terminés en ed, ſe forment régulièrement de l'infinitif, ſoit en y ajoutant d ſi le verbe finit par une voyelle, comme to love, loved ; ou ajoutant ed s'il ſe termine par une conſonne, comme, to anſwer, anſwered ; ou enfin en doublant la dernière conſonne quand elle eſt précédée d'une ſimple voyelle ; comme, to rub, rubbed ; to beg, begged ; to pin, pinned, &c.

Afin de perfectionner, autant qu'on a pu, cet Abrégé, on a encore ajouté le genre aux mots François dans la partie Angloiſe, lorſqu'il n'eſt pas determiné par l'article le ou la ; un ou une ; ainſi on trouvera dans cette Edition ſhelving, ſ. pente, f. talus, m. the ſide of a hill, le penchant, ou la pente d'une colline ; ſkill, ſ. ſcience, f. ſavoir, m. adreſſe, habileté, expérience, capacité, f. par-tout où, comme dans ce dernier exemple, il y a pluſieurs mots de ſuite ſans aucune diſtinction, c'eſt qu'ils ſont tous de même genre que le dernier, auquel eſt toujours jointe la lettre caractériſtique m. ou f.

Des augmentations auſſi conſidérables dans un Abrégé qui a déjà paſſé par tant d'éditions, et dont le mérite eſt ſi évidemment prouvé par la vente rapide de la dernière, malgré la Publication de pluſieurs autres ouvrages de même genre, montrent tout à la fois le déſintéreſſement des libraires aſſociés, et le deſir qu'ils ont de continuer à ne rien épargner pour perfectionner de plus en plus l'ouvrage qu'ils donnent au Public, et pour le lui rendre plus utile et plus agréable.

Future, the Conditional, and the Preſent and Preterite of the Subjunctive.

The whole Irregularity of the Engliſh Verbs being only in ſome Preterites and Participles, theſe have been ſubjoined to their Infinitives. Thus we ſhall find to bear, v. a. pret. bore, part. borne To give, v. a. pret. gave, part. given. To put, pret. and part. put. Wherever they are not taken Notice of, the Preterite and Participle end in ed (except in compound Verbs, which follow the ſame Variations as their Primitives) and are regularly formed from the Infinitive, either by adding d to it, when it ends by a Vowel, as to love, loved ; or ed when it ends by a Conſonant, as to anſwer, anſwered or by doubling the laſt Conſonant when it is preceded by a ſingle Vowel ; as to rub, rubbed ; to beg, begged ; to pin, pinned, &c.

In order to bring this Abridgment as near as poſſible to its Perfection, we have added, in this Edition, the Genders to the French Words in the Engliſh Part, wherever it is not determined by the Article le or la ; un or une. Thus ſhelving, ſ. pente, f. talus, m. the Side of a Hid, la pente ou le penchant d'une colline ; ſkill, ſ. ſcience, f. ſavoir, m. addreſſe, habileté, expérience, çapacité, f. Whenever, as in this laſt Example, there are ſeveral Words together without any Diſtinction, they are all of the ſame Gender with the laſt of them, to which is ever added the characteriſtical Letter m. or f.

Such conſiderable Improvements and Additions to an Abridgment which has already gone thro' ſo many Editions, the Merit of which is ſo evidently aſcertained by the quick Sale of the laſt Edition, in Spite of ſeveral other Publications of the ſame Kind, ſhow at once the Diſintereſtedneſs of the Proprietors, and the Deſire they have of ſparing no Expence to improve and render ſtill more acceptable and uſeful, the Performance which they offer to the Public.
